BUDD, BOSTON.

Historical Sketch.

For more than two centuries after the settlement of Massachusetts, there was, so far as is now known, no place of stated public worship within the present limits of Chelsea. As late as 1830 the territory was in the possession of a few proprietors, and they, with their families, worshipped in some of the neighboring towns. But in 1831 a little village was begun near the ferry, and soon gathered a considerable population. The Baptists organized a church in 1830, and their example was followed by the Unitarians and Universalists in 1838, by the Methodists in 1839, and by the Episcopalians in 1841, when the population had increased to 1,700.

As early as June, 1840, the Congregationalists began a weekly prayer and conference meeting, held in private houses, and in the spring of 1841 a small congregation was gathered in Slade's Hall for regular Sabbath services, and a Sabbath School was organized. Mr. Thomas Laurie and Mr. Isaac P. Langworthy, then theological students, were successively engaged for regular supply of the pulpit.

The Winnisimmet Church, consisting of forty-one members, was organized Sept. 20, 1841, and Nov. 10, the same year, Mr. Langworthy was ordained as its pastor.

From this date the church and congregation increased rapidly, and by the fourteenth of the same month what was lately the Broadway Chapel was occupied for public worship; and in March, 1843, the chapel not accommodating all who desired to worship therein, a church edifice was commenced, and dedicated July 12, 1843. This served reasonably until 1846, when it became necessary to add side-galleries. The church and congregation grew with the increasing population, and in the winter of 1850 and 1851 the church recognized the necessity of a division of its numbers, and to this end colonized, leaving one hundred and ten of its members to be formed into a new church, called the Broadway (now Central) Church, in connection with the original religious society.

Before the dedication of the present church edifice, March 31, 1852, public worship was held in Low's Hall till Dec. 14, 1851, and afterwards in the large vestry.

In Oct., 1854, seven members were dismissed to an ecclesiastical council which convened at Dixon, Ill., and with others were organized into a Congregational Church, and Nov. 28, 1856, twenty members were dismissed to a similar council, and Jan. 7, 1857, organized into the Plymouth Church in Chelsea.

The church has enjoyed signal marks of Divine favor in the long pastorates of beloved ministers, in the unbroken harmony existing among its members, and especially in frequently recurring and powerful revivals of religion, resulting in large accessions to its membership. Seasons of special interest were enjoyed in 1841, 1845, 1848–50, 1852, 1854, 1858, 1864, 1866, 1873, 1874.

Several who have been connected with this church have entered the ministry, among them Rev. James T. Matthews, Rev. Albert G. Bale, Rev. Samuel H. Virgin, Rev. Joseph C. Plumb, Rev. John W. Lees.

Rev. Isaac P. Langworthy, after a pastorate of seventeen years, was dismissed on account of ill health Nov. 10, 1858, to become Corresponding Secretary of the American Congregational Union. On the same day Mr. Albert H. Plumb was ordained as his successor, and here continued to labor for thirteen years, when he was dismissed, Dec. 26, 1871, to become pastor of the Walnut Avenue Congregational Church, Boston Highlands.

Rev. Addison P. Foster was installed pastor Oct. 9, 1872.

In October, 1874, the church changed its name, and instead of the Winnisimmet is hereafter to be known as the First Congregational Church of Chelsea.

The number of members composing the church at its formation was: —

Form of Admission to the Church.*

The minister shall begin by saying:

The following persons, either coming to us by letter from other churches, or having given satisfactory evidence of their Christian character, are now to be received to the membership of this Church.

The list of names being read, the minister shall proceed as follows:

During the reading of the Scriptures, which is immediately to follow, all who are to join this Church on profession of faith will come forward, that they may confess Christ before the world, and publicly take His vows upon them.

Those who join by letter, being previously seated in the front seats, will remain there until requested to come forward; those who are to join on profession of faith will now take their places in front of the pulpit, while the minister is reading one or more of the following verses of Scripture:

JESUS SAITH:

"If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me."

* Except the Confession of Faith and the Covenants, no parts of this form are obligatory on the officiating clergyman. Any modification of the Form of Baptism for Children, which follows is also left to his discretion.

"Whosoever, therefore, shall confess Me before men, him will I confess also before My Father which is in Heaven."

"And he arose and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion on him, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him."

"I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth."

Then the minister shall address the candidates as follows:

DEARLY BELOVED:

You are here before God and these witnesses, to confess the Lord Jesus Christ, and to enter into covenant with God and this church. We trust that you appreciate the solemnity and privilege of this act, and that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

You will now attend to our

Confession of Faith.

1. WE believe that there is one only living and true God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, — a Being possessed of every possible perfection, infinite in power, wisdom, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are given by inspiration of God, and that they contain the only perfect rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe that God made all things for Himself; that He governs the universe according to the counsel of His own will, and that all events will be made subservient to His wise and benevolent designs.

4. We believe that man was created in the image of God, in a state of rectitude and innocence; that he fell from that state by transgressing the Divine law; and that, in consequence of the original apostasy, the heart of man in his natural state is destitute of holiness and inclined to evil; and that all men, previous to regeneration, are dead in trespasses and sins.

5. We believe that Christ Jesus has, by His sufferings and death, made atonement for sin, and that all who are saved are justified wholly by grace through the redemption which there is in Christ.

6. We believe that salvation is freely offered to all men, and that all men are under obligation immediately to embrace the gospel; but, such is the depravity of the human heart, that no man will come to Christ until he is drawn by the special agency of the Holy Spirit.

7. We believe that all who embrace the gospel were from the beginning chosen unto salvation, through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth; and that they will be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

8. We believe that there will be a resurrection of the just and of the unjust, and a day of general judgment; and that the wicked will go away into punishment, and the righteous into happiness, both of which will be without end.

9. We believe that in this world the Lord Jesus Christ has a visible church, the terms of admission to which are, a credible evidence of regeneration, baptism, and a public profession of faith in Christ; that the ordinances of baptism and the Lord's Supper are to be observed to the end of the world; that none but members of the visible Church have a right to the Lord's Supper, and that such, and such only, have a right to dedicate their infant offspring in baptism.

Do you thus profess and believe?

The candidates shall assent by bowing.

Then the minister, addressing those who have been baptized in infancy, if such there are, shall say:

You who in childhood were dedicated to God in baptism by believing parents, do now accept their act, with the obligations and privileges it involves, as your own, and declare your belief that the regeneration thereby symbolized has been wrought in you by the Holy Spirit.

Those addressed shall bow in assent.

To the others, if there are any who have not been baptized, the minister shall say:

You who trust your hearts have been renewed, but who never have been privileged to receive the outward seal of the covenant, will now present yourselves for baptism.

The candidates for baptism shall here kneel together.

When baptism has been administered, the minister shall proceed;

In the presence of God and this assembly, you do now freely and cordially enter into the everlasting

Covenant of Grace.

Humbly confessing and forsaking your sins, and believing on the Lord Jesus with all your heart, you do avouch the Father Almighty, your Maker and Preserver, the Lord Jesus Christ, His equal and eternal Son, your Saviour and Master, and the Holy Spirit, your Sanctifier, Comforter, and Guide, to be your God.

You do trust only in His sovereign grace and almighty power.

You humbly and cheerfully consecrate your whole self, body, soul, and spirit, to be His, and at His entire disposal forever.

You promise that you will, henceforth, faithfully endeavor to keep His commandments and follow Him in all things; whatever you do, to do all for His glory; to give diligent heed to His word and ordinances; to do all that in you lies to convert the sinner from the error of his ways; and, denying ungodliness and wordly lusts, to live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world, looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

This you truly confess and heartily engage?

The candidates shall assent as before.

In case none join on profession of faith, the form of admission shall commence here
In case none join by letter, the following sentence shall be omitted:

Those who are to join this church by letter from other churches, having elsewhere made a satisfactory confession of their faith, and covenanted publicly with God, will now present themselves to enter with those already before us into

Covenant with this Church.

After all have taken their places, the minister shall say:

You do now cordially join yourself to this church, and you solemnly covenant to attend faithfully upon its services, to support its public worship and ordinances, to uphold its faith, to sustain and obey its rules and discipline, to honor it as you may be able by an upright life, to labor and pray for its peace and purity, its edification, usefulness, and prosperity, and to walk with its members in love and faithfulness.

This with the Divine help you pledge yourself to do?

The candidates shall assent as before.

We, then, the members of this church,

Here the members of the church shall rise.

affectionately receive you to our communion. We welcome you, in the name of Christ, to a part with us in the blessings of His covenant, to a share in the duties, privileges, and glories of His church. We promise you our love, our sympathy, our counsel and encouragement, and our prayers.

In token of our confidence and sincerity take the hand of fellowship, and remember these words which the Scripture saith.

Here the minister shall take each new member by the hand, in turn, repeating to each some appropriate passage of Scripture.

Then, the church being seated, the minister shall make the following address: —

And now, beloved in the Lord, ye are [no more strangers and foreigners, but *] fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief corner-stone.

Now if any man build upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, hay, wood, stubble, every man's work shall be made manifest. Wherefore, let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

For this cause we bow our knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that He would grant you according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend, with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up the light of His countenance upon you and give you peace.

Now unto Him that is able to keep us from falling and to present us faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

* These words are to be omitted in case none join on profession.

Form for the Baptism of Children.

While the minister is reading the following passages of Scriptures, or during the singing by the choir of an appropriate chant, the parents shall come forward with their children, and stand before the pulpit.

Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.

Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you and ye shall be clean. So shall He sprinkle many nations. Suffer the little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God. And He took them in His arms and blessed them.

For this child I prayed, and the Lord hath given me my petition which I asked of Him. Therefore also I have lent him to the Lord; as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the Lord.

He will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment.

When the parents and children are before the pulpit, the minister shall address the parents as follows: —

Dearly Beloved:

You are here to present your child for the baptismal seal of God's ancient covenant with His people. Trusting wholly in a risen Saviour for your salvation, you have a humble assurance that you are accepted of Christ. "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise. But the promise is unto you and to your children. For God hath said, I will establish My covenant between Me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations, for an everlasting covenant; to be a God unto thee and to thy seed after thee." Recognizing the preciousness of this relation, you desire that your offspring may enjoy its privileges. You do now, therefore, in the presence of God and these witnesses, by this rite of baptism, solemnly dedicate this child to be the Lord's. In humble dependence on His aid, you promise that you will faithfully endeavor to bring it up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, training it in the love of God, instructing it in His word, and prayerfully seeking to lead it to Christ, that in due time it may joyfully assume the obligations of this covenant and ratify this, your parental act, of its own free choice.

This you truly and heartily engage?

The parents having assented by bowing, the ordinance of baptism shall now be administered.

We, the members of this church,

do now receive this child into a special relationship of love and care. We promise, with the Divine aid, to watch over it, to pray for it, and to endeavor to influence it to become a child of God and an heir of glory.

As a token of our interest in its welfare, and of the importance of the Divine truth as its guide in life, we present it, through you, with this copy of God's Word.

Here the minster, on behalf of the church, shall present to the parents, for each child, a Bible, suitably inscribed.

May the book in after years be to it a source of strength and joy. And may you and your children, and all in our households, whatever their relation, be one in Christ.

Let us pray.

(Some time during the week previous to the baptism the minister should be informed of the full name of the child, the date of its birth, and the names of the parents.)

Regulations.

SECTION I.

Name and Officers.

ARTICLE 1. This church shall be called the First Congregational Church of Chelsea, Mass.

ART. 2. This church shall be an independent body, having within itself all necessary powers of government and discipline; recognizing the expediency and privilege of seeking the advice of other Christian churches, but amenable to no authority except that of the Head, which is Christ.

ART. 3. The officers of this church shall be a Pastor, Deacons, Deaconesses, Clerk, Treasurer, Auditor, and an Examining Committee,—the Clerk, Treasurer, Auditor, and Examining Committee, to be chosen annually; the Treasurer to be selected from the Board of Deacons.

ART. 4. The Deacons of this church shall be elected for a term of five years; and any person having served the full term shall not be eligible to a re-election for one year thereafter. The Deaconesses shall be elected for one year.

ART. 5. The Examining Committee shall consist of the Pastor, Deacons, Clerk, and three other brethren of the church.

ART. 6. The duties of the Deacons shall be as follows: —

1. They shall have the care of the furniture of the Communion Table, shall make provision for the regular observance of the Lord's Supper, and shall distribute the bread and wine at its celebration.

2. They, with the Pastor, shall determine the amount of relief to be afforded to needy members of the church, and through the Treasurer they shall disburse such relief from the collections taken up at the Communion, according to the necessities of the members.

3. In the absence of the Pastor they shall take the charge, personally or by proxy, of all the devotional meetings of the church, and in his absence they shall preside at all business meetings unless the church shall at any time see fit to elect a moderator for the occasion.

4. They shall aid the Pastor in furnishing a preacher in his temporary absence or disability.

5. They shall aid the Pastor in organizing the members of the church into active labors in behalf of the sick, the poor, the strangers, and in the care of neighborhood prayer-meetings or meetings in out-districts.

6. They shall seek to aid the Pastor in maintaining an oversight of the spiritual condition of the individual members of the church.

7. Together with the other members of the Examining Committee they shall initiate steps of discipline with respect to offending members of the church, in case such measures of discipline are not otherwise taken.

8. They, with the Pastor, shall be empowered to authorize special collections when they deem it advisable.

9. They shall examine such notices offered to be read in the pulpit as the Pastor shall deem of doubtful propriety, and shall submit to their judgment; and in any case their expressed disapproval shall prevent a notice from being read.

ART. 7. It shall be the duty of the Deaconesses to visit wherever they can be of service, especially new comers, the sick, the afflicted, the destitute, and the thoughtful; to seek out church neglecters and bring them to the services of the church; to inform the Pastor, Deacons, and others, who ought to know, of cases demanding attention; to introduce strangers at the sociables and elsewhere; to secure helpers in such directions as they may need aid; and in general, to supplement the labors of the Pastor as their time, strength, and ability may permit.

ART. 8. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to keep the records of the church, to notify all officers, committees, and delegates, of their election or appointment, also to inform all new members of their admission to the church, and to conduct all correspondence that the church may direct.

ART. 9. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to take charge of the benevolent and charitable collections of the church, and pay these over according to its vote, and present a report of his disbursements and of the state of the Treasury to the church, annually or at such times as the church may order.

ART. 10. It shall be the duty of the Auditor to examine the accounts of the Treasurer previous to their presentation to the church at the annual meeting, and audit them if correct.

ART 11. It shall be the duty of the Examining Committee to examine all who desire to join the church on profession of their faith, and in the case of all applicants for admission, to present to the church the names of those whom they approve. At the annual meeting they shall make a report of the state of the church, of their doings, and of the absent members.

ART. 12. The Pastor and Deacons shall, at the annual meeting, recommend a list of objects for the contributions of the ensuing year, unless this matter shall have been provided for by previous vote of the church.

SECTION II.

Qualification and Admission of Members.

ARTICLE 1. Persons who desire admission to this church on profession of their faith shall be examined by the Committee of the church chosen for that purpose as to their doctrinal sentiments and personal piety; and if approved by the Committee they shall stand propounded before the congregation two weeks previous to admission; and when received it shall be by vote of the church and in accordance with the prescribed form.

ART. 2. Persons who propose to unite with this church by letter from other churches are requested to appear before the Examining Committee for the purpose of fuller acquaintance; if approved by the Committee they shall stand propounded before the congregation one week previous to admission; and when received it shall be by vote of the church and in accordance with the prescribed form.

ART. 3. It is expected that all members of other churches worshipping with us will present their letters within one year after coming among us; and a letter dated more than a year previous to its presentation will not be regarded as valid without good reason for the delay.

SECTION III.

Meetings.

ARTICLE 1. The ordinance of the Lord's Supper shall be observed the first Sabbath afternoon in January, March, May, July, September, and November.

ART. 2. There shall be a meeting of the church on Friday evening of each week for devotional exercises and religious conference. The meeting next preceding each Communion season shall be specially devoted to preparation for the proper observance of that ordinance.

ART. 3. There shall be a conference and prayer-meeting on Tuesday evening of each week for the special benefit of the young people of the church and congregation, to be conducted (ordinarily) by the younger members of the church.

ART. 4. There shall be a concert of prayer for missions on the first Sabbath evening of each month, and a Sabbath School Concert on the second Sabbath evening of each month.

ART. 5. On the other Sabbath evenings of each month there shall be held prayer-meetings; but the Pastor and Deacons are empowered to modify or change the service on any given Sabbath evening, in case the circumstances warrant such change.

ART. 6. There shall be an Annual Business Meeting of this church on the last Monday evening of December, at which officers and committees of the church shall be chosen for the ensuing year or term. But any vacancies that occur during the year may be filled at any regular meeting of the church.

ART. 7. A special business meeting of the church may be called at any time when in the opinion of the Pastor or Deacons it shall be expedient; and shall be called at any time upon the written application of five of the brethren of the church.

ART. 8. All business of importance, involving discussion, must be proposed to the church previous to the occasion on which action is to be taken, and only brethren of the church over seventeen years of age shall be entitled to vote.

SECTION IV.

Sabbath School.

ARTICLE 1. There shall be held in such place as shall be provided by the church, at a suitable hour of each Sabbath, a Sabbath School for the instruction in the knowledge of the Scriptures and in practical religion, of all children, youth, and adults who can be reached.

ART. 2. The officers of this school shall be a Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, Secretary, Treasurer, and Librarian, chosen annually by vote of the teachers.

ART. 3. Teachers may be assigned to the classes of the Sabbath School by the Superintendent, but none shall be appointed for that purpose to whom the Pastor and Deacons shall object.

ART. 4. Other arrangements necessary to the successful progress of the school may be made by the Superintendent alone or conjointly with the teachers.

SECTION V.

Censures and Excommunications.

ARTICLE 1. This church holds itself bound to discipline its members for all instances of vice or immorality which come to the knowledge of the church, also for continued absence from its worship and stated ordinances without sufficient reason, and to cut off offenders from its communion for flagrant transgression of the moral law, or when they persist in the commission of minor offences.

ART. 2. Any member who shall deny any of the fundamental doctrines which are embraced by this church, and which he professed on his admission, shall be admonished; if he persists, after the first and second admonition, he shall be rejected from the fellowship of this church.

ART. 3. The Pastor, the Deacons, or any member, may bring a charge before the church against any transgressor.

ART. 4. Any member who is accused before the church shall be duly notified of the charge; and be entitled to a fair investigation, and an opportunity for making his defence.

ART. 5. The confession of an accused member, or the concurrent testimony of two credible witnesses, or circumstantial evidence deemed equivalent by the church, shall be considered sufficient for his conviction.

ART. 6. Every vote and sentence of excommunication shall be read before a regular meeting of the church.

ART. 7. This church considers it the duty of all heads of families to maintain family worship.

SECTION VI.

Withdrawal from the Church.

ARTICLE 1. This church will grant dismissions and recommendations to those members who are in good standing, and who prefer uniting with other churches with which it is in fellowship; the application to stand over for consideration one week.

ART. 2. Letters of dismission shall be valid one year only from their date, and members who have received such letters to other churches shall not vote in the meetings of this church unless they have returned the same.

ART. 3. This church deems it irregular for its members to withdraw from it, and to unite in communion and worship with other churches, either on account of any offence or for better edification, without giving notice to the church, and in due time requesting a dismission.

ART. 4. Members who have been habitually absent from the worship and ordinances of this church for one year shall not vote in its meetings except by special permission of the church.

ART. 5. It shall be the duty of every member who may remove from this city, or cease to worship with this church, to apply as soon as convenient for a dismission and recommendation to some regular church of Christ, in or near the place of his residence.

SECTION VII.

Miscellaneous Rules.

ARTICLE 1. All minutes of the business transactions of the church shall be read on the Friday evening previous to the Communion, and the same shall be approved by the church before being entered on the records.

ART. 2. In selecting delegates to Ecclesiastical Councils, Conferences, etc., this church shall appoint substitutes, and whenever the regular delegate is unable to fill the appointment, it shall be his duty to notify the substitute, in order that this church may be represented, if possible, on all such occasions.

ART. 3. It shall be the duty of the Pastor to furnish, and of the Clerk to record, the names of the baptized children of the church.

ART. 4. A Bible shall be presented from the church to each child when baptized, bearing the child's name and date of baptism.

ART. 5. These regulations may be suspended at any regular meeting of the church by a unanimous vote of the members present.

ART. 6. No alteration shall be made in the foregoing Regulations, unless at a regular meeting of the church (notice of such proposed alteration having been given at a meeting previous to that on which action is to be taken), and by vote of two thirds of the members present.
